
History of North Carolina Libraries and Librarianship: A Bibliography Part IV

— Compiled by Wiley J. Williams

This is the final installment of a four-part bibliography that covers North Carolina and United States archives and manuscript collections; personal papers of notable N.C. librarians and library educators; and sources on N.C. and U.S. librarians and library benefactors, public documents, and special collections and private libraries. Part I, which was published in the Spring 2004 issue of North Carolina Libraries, included sources of library history of N.C. public libraries in general, and histories of public libraries in Alamance through Guilford counties. Part II, which was published in the Summer 2004 issue, included the histories of public libraries in Halifax through Yadkin counties. Part III, which was published in the Fall 2004 issue, included sources of library history of N.C. colleges, universities, and community colleges, as well as general sources on N.C. and U.S. library history.

The compiler acknowledges with appreciation the assistance of Robert G. Anthony, Jr., Curator of the North Carolina Collection, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and his staff; Rebecca B. Vargha, librarian of the School of Information and Library Science (UNC-CH), and Mary Bryson, Patricia Schefcick, and Amanda Wilson; Virginia Purefoy Jones, librarian of the School and Library and Information Sciences, North Carolina Central University; James V. Carmichael, School of Education, University of North Carolina at Greensboro; and Kevin Cherry, College of Education, East Carolina University, and doctoral student at the School of Information and Library Science (UNC-CH).
