Guidelines for Using the Index to North Carolina Libraries

1. Articles are indexed by title, subject, and first-named author, with cross-references from coauthors.
2. Reviews are indexed by the title and first-named author, with cross-references from reviewers.
3. All library organizations are entered under their full names. Information about the substructures of these organizations, such as committees, round tables, etc., is listed alphabetically under the organization name. (For example, for information on the activities, officers, reports, committees, and round tables of NCLA, see North Carolina Library Association.)
