ANNOUNCEMENT

The page-proofing stage for North Carolina Authors: a Selective Handbook, prepared under the joint auspices of the North Carolina Library Association and the North Carolina English Teachers Association, will have been reached when this issue of North Carolina Libraries is published. Publication of the initial and limited edition is scheduled for late October. Many of the 164 sketches of authors "who have been significant in the North Carolina literary scene" were written autobiographically which is a distinctive feature of this useful reference book. Contents will also include a short history of printing in the state. This volume, one of the special literature series of the Extension Department's publications, will be a "must" purchase for every library in North Carolina. Orders for a paper-bound copy at $1.50 or a copy in cloth at $3.00 may be addressed to the Library Extension Department, University of North Carolina Library, Chapel Hill.
